GAME OF THRONES

FILMED AT MURLOUGH BAY, NORTH ANTRIM

THE STORMLANDS

Game of Thrones is an original HBO series based on George R.R. Martin's best-selling fantasy novels, A Song of Ice and Fire. Since the pilot in 2009, the show has filmed across various locations in Northern Ireland. This location was used for a scene in the Stormlands between the brothers Stannis and Renly Baratheon. Renly has been crowned King with the support of the powerful House Tyrell and has gathered an army of 100,000 men from across the Reach and the Stormlands. His elder brother, Stannis Baratheon, travels to meet him and demands Renly join with him, proclaiming himself to be the true heir to the Iron Throne. The party breaks down, with Renly refusing to join Stannis and vainly asserting he has the larger army. Stannis wheels his horse and rides away as Melisandre warns Renly to look to his sins because 'the night is dark and full of terrors'.
